

your DESIGN PROCESS

It's your home, not ours. And you have some great ideas on the look and style of your new home, and you probably have even seen other builder model homes or existing resale homes that you have liked, except for the price. You've probably also looked at builder "inventory" homes and you already know that there are many items that doesn't meet all of our lifestyle demands. You want to put your "special touches" into your home and you want a builder who can help bring all of your ideas together while having the experience to guide you through the design and construction process. Colfax Companies can help.

Bringing Colfax Companies your ideas is the first step to building your new home. We'll listen to what you have to say and actually encourage your input throughout the entire process. We'll provide ideas and offer you cost effective product and construction solutions that will exceed your quality and value expectations.

We understand that designing and building your home is a complicated process so Colfax Companies has created an easy and understandable way to convey all of your ideas so we get it right the first time. We're here to help.
